Rome, June 19. N. S.

THE Letters from Naples give an Account, that the Knights of Maltha have lately loſt one of their Galleys, which was caſt away near Palermo, and above 200 Men drowned, among which were 3 Knights of Maltha. Cardinal Moriggia being made Arch-Prieſt of Sta. Maria Major, and thereby obliged to reſide in this City, has thereupon reſigned the Arch-Biſhoprick of Florence, and the Pope has given the ſame to Signior Strozzi, who was before Biſhop of Piſtoia. The Prince of Monaco, Ambaſſador from France, will make his Publick Entry in 4 or 5 days. Count Granery is arrived here from Turin, in the Quality of Reſident from the Duke of Savoy.

Venice, June 25. Signior Giacomo Cornaro, who was Captain-General in the Levant, having compleated the Term of Years for which that Office is uſually given, has accordingly reſigned the ſame; And the Senate have reſolved to Suppreſs this Employment in time of Peace, but they have continued him in the Chief Command of the Venetian Forces in thoſe Parts, with the Title of Proveditore-General of the Morea. A Sum of Money was lately ſent to Dalmatia, to be employed in repairing the Fortifications of Caſtelnovo.

Mittaw, June 25. The Saxon Horſe that are going to their Camp near Riga, are arrived within 2 or 3 days March of this Place; The Foot comes by Sea from Coningsberg to Memil. General Steynau, who Commands theſe Forces, arrived here the 23d Inſtant, and yeſterday went to the Saxon Camp. Prince Ferdinand of Courland is returned hither from Livonia; He has received a Preſent from Count Welling, General of the Swediſh Forces, of ſeven England Horſes, and in return has ſent him two very fine Horſes. Our Advices from the Saxon Camp near Riga ſay, the King of Poland's Horſe-Guards, about 1200 ſtrong, are arrived there from Warſaw. The Swediſh Army have received freſh Reinforcements, but 'tis ſaid, they will not paſs the Dwina before they receive the Succours that are coming by Sea from Sweden.

Copenhagen, June 29. The Engliſh and Dutch Squadrons came the 27th Inſtant before the Sound, and anchored about 2 miles from Cronenbourg, in ſight of the Daniſh Fleet. Soon after their Arrival, the Daniſh Admiral Gielde, and the Sieur Oluf Hanſſin one of the Council of State, went on board Sir George Rooke, where they were very well received, and were ſaluted with 15 Guns; and yeſterday Sir George Rooke and Admiral Allemonde ſent their Rear-Admira's on board the Daniſh Admiral, who received them with the like Civility. The Danes have removed all the Buoys which marked out the Channel in the Sound, to render the Paſſage of it more difficult, and have doubled the Guards on the Sea-Coaſt. An Embargo is laid on all the Ships in this Port, and the Seamen are taken out of them and ſent to the Fleet.

Vienna, June 26. Count Straatman, Envoy Extraordinary from the Emperor to the King of Poland, began his Journey to Warſaw yeſterday. Signior Pignatelli, who is likewiſe going thither with the Character of Nuncio from the Pope, has had Private Audiences of the Emperor and Empreſs, and of the King and Queen of the Romans, and will continue his Journey in 2 or 3 days. Count Martinitz, late Ambaſſador from the Emperor at the Court of Rome, is returned hither, and has taken Poſſeſſion of his Office of Captain of the Emperor's Guard of Archers.

Tonningen, June 30. On the 27th Inſtant, a Party of 600 Foot and 100 Dragoons were ſent from hence with two Field-Pieces to gather Contributions, and being come to Wiering, they met a Body of 2000 of the Country People and 200 Regulated Troops, whom they engaged and put to flight, about 40 being killed, and ſeveral taken Priſoners; And the Country afterwards conſented to pay the Contributions demanded of them, whereof the Duke of Holſtein's Officers received 10000 Dollars in ready Money, and Security was given them, that the reſt, amounting to 6000 Dollars, ſhould be paid in a ſhort time.

Berlin, July 3. The Elector of Brandenburgh having altered his Reſolution of going to Lentzen to review his Forces encamped near that Place, his Servants that went before were countermanded; and his Electoral Highneſs went from hence this morning to Copenich; Preparations are making for his Electoral Highneſs's Journy to Pruſſia. The Sieur Biberſtein, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Poland, had Audience ſome days ago of the Elector. A great quantity of Proviſions and Ammunition was ſent this day from hence to Lentzen for the Service of the Forces there.

Francfort, July 4. The Sieur Obrecht, Envoy from France, is gone from hence to Wurtzbourg on ſome Commiſſion from the King his Maſter to the Biſhop of that Place. The Elector Palatine's Forces continue to aſſemble near Manheim, where Count Naſſau Weilburgh, General of all his Electoral Highneſs's Forces, is to take a Review of them, and to detach 4 Regiments to be ſent to the Aſſiſtance of the Duke of Saxe-Meiningen, who has obtained a Decree of the Emperor for the Recovery of the Dutchy of Colourg, whereof the Duke of Saxe-Gotha is at preſent in Poſſeſſion, but 'tis believed this Matter will be accommodated.

Duſſeldorp, July 5. The Elector Palatine intends in 2 or 3 days to go to his Palace at Haimbach, and after a ſhort ſtay there, will continue his Journey to Vienna. Orders are given, for ſending to the Palatinate a Detachment of his Electoral Highneſs's Forces quartered in the Countries of Bergh and Juliers.
